

ASTON MARTIN 'AM37' POWERBOAT

May 1, 2015 The Unbiased Writer

Quintessence Yachts teamed up with Aston Martin to create the luxury high performance 'AM37' powerboat. Set to be the foundation for a range of high-end collaborative water crafts, the first tantalizing glimpse of the 'AM37' powerboat has been released. Built with a high-technology composite structure, the 37-foot vessel features sports car-like handling, performance and comfort. In addition, the boat comes with interactive voice control, fully HD-integrated touch screen, and remote controlled functions. Check out the images below:
